Town Center Commercial Core: Alta, Utah

of the Town of Alta General Plan.

The area denoted by the red dashed line is the Town Center Commercial Core, hereafter referred to as the "core." The core is not a zoning designation but a generally defined area used for the purposes of planning.

This map was created to supplement the Commercial Element

Data for this map was developed from numerous sources, many of which are spatially innacurate. Therefore, this map should be used for general planning purposes only.
