Application Instructions

Section 1

Select the appropriate Category for your business.

Subsection 1A - REQUIRED for Cat 1, 2, and 3 applications

Subsection 1A Definitions:

- Standard lodging units: means each bedroom in a hotel, a motel, a bed and breakfast establishment or an inn. It also means each bedroom in a condominium or property used as a residence that is part of a rental pool or regularly rented out for a time period of less than 30 consecutive days.
- High-occupancy lodging units: means each bedroom in a hostel or a unit similar to a hostel. A hostel is a supervised, inexpensive lodging place for travelers, especially young travelers.

Second App: Applicable to any entity applying for more than one business license in the same category.

Section 2

Select either New Application or Renewal.

Federal Tax (EIN #): The Employer Identification Number, also known as the Federal Employer Identification Number or the Federal Tax Identification Number, is a unique nine-digit number assigned by the Internal Revenue Service to business entities operating in the United States for the purposes of identification.

State Entity #: For approval from the Town of Alta, your business must also be registered with the State of Utah. If you do not know your State Entity #, you can search for your business and find the number via this link:

<https://secure.utah.gov/bes/index.html>

State Sales Tax #: This is the number you use to file taxes with the Utah State Tax Commission, obtained by filling out form TC-69. Most often, an 11 digit number with a hyphen separating the final 3 numbers with STC at the end (xxxxxxx-xxx STC).

For more information, visit <https://tax.utah.gov/sales> or refer to Publication 25.

If you are operating a short-term rental, you may need to have your own unique State Sales Tax # unless you rent directly. Please write-in the name of your Property Management Company (examples: Airbnb, Canyon Services, Alta Chalets, etc.)

Section 3

Business Address: Physical location of your business in Alta.

Mailing Address: Preferred mailing address for your business license to be sent to.

Business Description: The nature of the commercial or professional activity you are applying for.

Section 4

Sole Proprietorship: An unincorporated business that has just one owner who pays personal income tax on profits earned from the business.

Partnership: A formal arrangement by two or more parties to manage and operate a business and share its profits.

LLC: A business structure that protects its owners from personal responsibility for its debts or liabilities.

Corporation: A legal entity that is separate and distinct from its owners.
